Col. Thos. S. Kenan, the chief marshal, is at present at work on the detalls of the program. It will be a rnounced shortly.

LAW EXAMINATION.

The Supreme Court will hold examination for applicants for license to practice law, on the 24th day of September. It is said that there will be twelve applicants from the Wake Forest Law School, and quite a number from Chapel Hill. The examinations are in writing, and it is said, are more difficult each year.

THE APPALACHIAN PARK.

A special from Asheville says:

more difficult each year.

THE APPALACHIAN PARK.
A special from Asheville says:
A surveying party of the United States Geological Survey is working in the neighborhood of Mount Micheli, and a surveyor of the State Agricultural Department is accompanying them in the interest of the Appalachian National Park. He is marking the clearings and farms in the mountains so that a computation may be made of the amount of farm land it would be necessary to condemn for the park.

PROSPEROUS MILLS.

The Fayetteville Observer says:
The LaFayette Knitting Mill recently received and is now running additional machinery, sufficient to increase its output 50 per cent, making its daily capacity now 150 dozen.

In order to meet its constantly increasing orders, the LaFayette company will, in the near fature, begin the working of a night shift, and with this in view the president of the company is now in the North for the purpose of purchasing an electric light plant.

sany will, in the near future, begin the vorking of a night shift, and with this in view the president of the company is now in the North for the purpose of surchasing an electric light plant. This factory, which started in such a nodest way, has met with phenomenal uccess, and should point the way to many small and diversified industries. LAGRANGE CITIZENS DISCHARGED.

Messrs. W. H. Sprunt, A. H. Brenner and T. E. Wallace went up to ioldsboro yesterday to testify in a casen which Messrs. J. M. Murchison and V. H. Taylor, two prominent business nen of Lagrange, N. C., were charged by the Government with a fraudulent use of the mails in connection with the fourthern Cotton Buyers' Association, which die business through the Windington postofice, and a reference to be plant of which were made recently. The defendants were represented by Hon. Charles B. Ayeack, F. A. Daniels, Esq., and W. C. Monroe, Esq., of Goldsboro, and a private telegram eccived in the city last night says that hey were discharged by Commissioner Humphry for want of evidence. Perons acquainted with the operations of heler association say the business was

EDENTON.

(Special to Virginian-Pilot.)

Edenton, N. C., Aug. 17.—The steamer Haven Belle returned last night from Nag's Head with the excursion party that left here Sanday night. One of Dr. J. H. Mullen's fine driving horses is suffering much pain this morning from the effects of being run into yesterday evening while standing in front of the doctor's office buched to a buggy by a colored boy driving a horse attached to a cart. It was purely carelessness on the part of the boy, as the street is wide enough for three vehicles to pass.

Mr. A. Owens returned yesterday from Niagara Falls and other places of interest.

AHOSKIE.

BOLD ROBBERY COMMITTED BY A NEGRO.
(Special to Virginian-Pilot.) (Special to Virginian-Pilot.)
Ahoskie, N. C., Aug. 17.—The murderer John Sears, a very bright mulatto, is creating quite an excitement through this section. On Monday night he went to a white man's gate and asked for water. After getting his water he asked for something to eat. Mrs. Bly, at whose house he had called, told him she would give him some cold vegetables she and her husband had just left over from supper. They thought he was white. She arranged the table and Sears sat down in the light. She then discovered her mistake. He afe heartily and talked freely. When through he asked how much he owed. Her answer was: "Whil 15 cents valid you?" he inquired. "Yes," she answered.

"Whatever you will pay me."
"Will 15 cents satisfy you?" he inquired.
"Yes," she answered.
He then asked. "Can you give me
change for one dollar?"
Mrs. Bly had no money of her own, but her 17-year-old boy, who had been nulling rousier and ditching in the heat, had made $2.99, and had brought it home and given it to his mother to buy provisions with. So Mrs. Bly got the pocketbook, got out $5 cents, laid it on the table and reached for the dollar, but Scars presented a revolver
in her face.
"Give me the balance of that money,"
he demanded.

She handed him the pocketbook, Mr.
Bly attempted to get up, but was warned not to move. Mrs. Bly attempted to go in the house, but was notified to stop.

Sears remarked that he dropped some of the money under his feet, and while they were pretending to look for it he jumped over the fence in the thick corn. Mr. Bly had a gun, but it had not been fired lately. Detective Branch was wired for, but could not come. Local officers have done all they could without dogs.

Sears robbed a party near Courtland of $150 yesterday and is still at large in that community. If we could have gotten dogs Tuessiay Sears would have been captured. Much excitement prevails.
